

Kimbra, Miracle

I'm rising up
Sometimes I want to get away, ach, ach
And from the moment I met you
I'm ready to fade
I'm ready for a brighter day
Like a castaway, sometimes I feel so separated, ach, ach
But I can never forget you
The emotion's fine, you shine a little light of me

Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle
Miracle, Miracle
Yeah, can't describe [?]

Now I flash away
