King Diamond, Digging Graves

[Music & amp; Lyrics: Diamond]

Lucy, you stay here...the tomb is warm Why don't you play with the dools... The dolls on the wall

I am not the guy I used to be, not since he put me away I left half my brain behind, back in that crazy place Does that mean...that I am insane Does that really mean...that I am to blame...NO NO NO

Is it true what they say...little girls don't cry Is it true what they say...Lucy look at me

I am not the guy I used to be, not since he put me away I left half my brain behind, back in that crazy place Does that mean...that I am insane Does that really mean...that I am to blame...NO NO NO

Into the night I go, and you can't follow me Into the night I go, and you can't follow me

I will be your misery, I'm gonna be your HELL I will be your misery, and I wish you well, in HELL

I'm digging graves, seven deadly tombs I'm digging graves, below that crazy moon

I will be your misery, I'm gonna be your HELL I will be your misery, and I wish you well, in HELL

McKenzie, how could you think I'd forget

[SOLO: Andy - SOLO: Herb]

All graves done...I'm so clever Seven headstones in all...saying "Lucy Forever"

I am not the guy I used to be, not since he put me away I left half my brain behind, back in that crazy place Does that mean...that I am insane Does that really mean...that I am to blame...NO NO NO

Into the night I go, and you can't follow me Into the night I go, and you can't follow me

I will be your misery, I'm gonna be your HELL I will be your misery, and I wish you well, in HELL

I'm digging graves, seven deadly tombs I'm digging graves, below that crazy moon

[SOLO: Herb]

Into the night I go, and you can't follow me...
