King Diamond, From The Other Side

[Music & Eyrics By King Diamond]

I don't know if I'm dead or alive All I know is I'm running out of time Oh, I'm leaving my body... Oh, leaving it behind

From the other side, looking down I know that it's me From the other side, looking fown it's the devil I see

Someone down there is saving my life I see a tear being shed by THE EYE Oh, I'm drifting much higher... Oh, into the light

From the other side, looking down I know that it's me From the other side, looking fown it's the devil I see

I see the strangest faces Faces that I've never seen before They see me through empty spaces Spaces that do not exist no more

I swear by the moon and the devil I'll be thier guardian if they will be mine

There's a demon with red glowing eyes He's invading the body that was mine Oh, is there still time... Oh, Time to return

From the other side, looking down I know that it's me From the other side, looking fown it's the devil I see

I guess I wasn't ready yet 'Cause someone there is calling me back from the dead

Demon, demon, are you there Demon, demon, leave my lair

From the other side, looking down I know that it's me From the other side, looking fown it's the devil I see WAKE UP!
