

Kirlian Camera, Learning To Live

A warm, peaceful river flows down there. Blue horizons on your head...
You are lucky, get relaxed...
Do believe me, everything is running fine
we are here just for you, trying to save you and keep you calm You're not lost, so don't care
if you see any shining 'round your bed, in that room
So be strong, and hold on.
There's a place near this house
and your daddy will take you there...
So talk to me, no, don't lose your will now...
A warm, golden river
that flows filled with mice...
..... Little mice, little world, just a kingdom to belong to...
..... Little world, little mice, just a kingdom to belong to...
No she's not able to speak to anybody else but her dreams,
she's a fool, she's a lunatic, she's never really existed...
just a joke of your mind... So, come on, make your choice...
Save the whales
Kill the flies
Don't eat meat
Don't kill pigs
Save the planet
Save your soul
Get left-wing
Get right-wing
Read Bukowski
Don't waste time!
... And be kind, and be grateful
Tell me how you're so special
Buy a flat and some pet
And do not forget your roots!
Trust in Satan, he's the truth
Anyway you're nothing... nothing
And inside you are God, you are free, you are my son.
Keep on taking drugs and pills... Got addicted? Get cleared out!
Let's change treatment
Drink less coffee...
There's a light in the sky.
"Welcome to you all, come to me
call by phone and excuse me if I don't speak so well... Let your friends come with you!".
She's never really existed... just a joke of your mind...
Keep on taking sedatives... There's a light in the sky.
