

Kiss, Lonely Is The Hunter

My eggs in one basket, but she threw me a bone
She was dealt a full deck, but she likes to live alone Ain't just talkin' to myself, need a reason to stop (oh yeah)
With a flower in her teeth, she drained the last drop I said girls love money like bees the honey

But lonely is the hunter, you're my one and only, and lonely is the hunter Asked her for a refill, sweat flew off my face (oh yeah)
She's a legendary figure, kept me in a cage She's a torture chamber, when I seduced her in my bed (ooh yeah)
She gave a cold reading, success went to her head

In the heat of the battle the heart cannot rule, I'm such a fool

But lonely is the hunter, you're my one and only,
and lonely is the hunter
Lonely is the hunter, you're my one and only,
and lonely is the hunter
Lonely is the hunter, you're my one and only,
and lonely is the hunter
Lonely is the hunter, you're my one and only,
and lonely is the hunter
