Kiss, Modern Day Delilah

I still remember when I saw your face across the room Told me to take you but the price of love would seal my doom I know the way you made the others break But loving me would be your first mistake

Same old way, same old ways Modern Day Delilah Each time you learn to give Queen to slave Modern Day Delilah Listen

You lived your glory in a liars haze you called the truth The same old story of a social plan from wasted youth You thought that you could bring me to my knees But whos the one whos crying baby please

Same old way, same old ways Modern Day Delilah Each time you learn to give Queen to slave Modern Day Delilah

Just like the trigger of a loaded gun You were the reason for the damage done Too many lovers like a hunters prey Not today

I know the way you made the others break But loving me would be your last mistake Each time you learn to give

Same old ways
Modern day Delilah
Shame, shame, shame on you girl
Queen to slave, come on now
Modern day Delilah
Yeah, yeah, each time you learn to give
Same old way, same old ways
Know you'll pay
Delilah
Queen to slave, loves decayed
Delilah
