

Kisschasy, Stay Awake

well i know that we are dead, and my only regret is i gave you all i have,
and you just left

now all that's left are the memories and the pain because now i sleep on blades just to stay awake

i think it's time you listen to what i say; i don't care if it takes a million days another year is almost over but i'm the one that's coming to an end what did you want me to do ? i'll never wake this far from you and if i never wake again it will be too soon!
