

Kitty Wells, Is It Really Over

Is it really over is it the end of the line

Don't tell me I'm losing the love that was mine

If you're really leaving take some part of me

So I'll always remember how sweet love used to be

I wonder who's stepping into my shoes who can she be

I can tell by your eyes our love has died and it's over for me

[guitar]

I wonder who's stepping...

Really over for me
