

Kitty Wells, Kisses On Occasion

Kisses on occasion kind words are very few

You don't know I'm living you live just for you

I spend every hour each day doing things you want me to

Kisses on occasion are all I get from you

You tell me you don't have the time so I just walk the floor

And wonder why you don't take time for my love anymore

To you I just don't matter and it's tearing out my heart

Kisses on occasion are driving us apart

[piano - steel]

You tell me you don't have the time...
