Koffin Kats, If I Return

All these voices telling me
Which way's best to go
But I've not heard anyone
Who knows the things I know

I've seen the slaughtered children's corpses
Pointing to the sky
Where this schoolhouse used to be
I jumped a rift in time

Oh have you seen me since
I went beneath the ground
Or is there someone else
Stealing all my love?

The church was lighting up the sky
As it burned throughout the night
Barricade against the door
Noone had survived

Walking through the village where
The plague had fallen on
Breathe the poison one had said
But he didn't know who I was

Oh have you seen me since
I went beneath the ground
Or is there someone else
Stealing all my love?

If I return will you know my face
Or will you just pass me by
Like all the others in the past
