Komodo, Still

still I can't live without your love I can't live without your soul I am still looking different time time for me and time for still I don't know what do you need I don't know what do you feel tell me how to be like you I feel like so much love I feel like something strange to be like just a part of little game in your eyes how to be together and how to live for ever how to find a better way to haven still I can't live without your love I can't live without your soul I am still looking different time time for me and time for still I don't know what do you need I don't know what do you feel tell me how to be like you I loves with you still loves with you still I can't live without your love I can't live without your soul I am still looking different time time for me and time for still I don't know what do you need

I don't know what do you feel tell me how to be like you