

Kooks, Matchbox

Viciously, she sleeps
Walks along her lonely beat
She trips falls into it all
And I wish I'd bite my lip and call her away
From you, my little one
Oh you, my little one

Don't come too close
You don't wanna see my ghost
Your turn but I'm betrayed
By you my sweetheart
Don't you think that you went too far?
Do you want to see my heart bleed?
For you, you and him
Him and you, you know my heart bleeds

And all of us
We're going out tonight
We're gonna walk all over your cars
The Kooks are out
In the street
Oh we're gonna steal your skies
All of us
We're going out tonight
We're gonna walk all over your cars
The Kooks are out
In the street
Oh they're gonna steal your...

I'm sorry
That I let you go
I let you down, I let you down, my dear

I always seem to play these games with you, my dear
I always, I always...

All of us
We're going out tonight
We're gonna walk all over your cars
The Kooks are out
In the street
Oh we're gonna steal your skies
All of us
We're going out tonight
We're gonna walk all over your cars
The Kooks are out
In the street
Oh they're gonna steal your skies

Oh, oh my Juliet, I'll never betray you, my love
Oh, oh my Juliet, I'll never never betray you, my love
