Korn, Haze

Walking alone inside my world Thinking I'm doing the right thing Destroying all that appears before me It was all done in vain

Wanna get through fire Wanna get through pain Wanna get with violence Wanna get with shame

Digging this place to call my own Raping my body without a face Tortured my soul as black as pitch And I have no life to waste

(whispered section)
I worshiped you
Do anything
So lost and helpless
I played your game
I worshiped you
Do anything
So lost and helpless
I PLAYED YOUR GAME!
