

Korn, Rotting in vain

I wouldn't be angry if you just fuck*cried
Your tears would arouse me, refreshing my supply
The suffering is fading, I scream into the sky
Revulsion invades me, I say goodbye

Deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't just get away
Another day rotting in vain

I wouldn't be angry if things would stay the same
You're fighting the ---- that helps me ease my pain
The suffering is fading, I scream into the sky
Revulsion invades me, I say goodbye

Deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't just get away

And deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't just get away
