

Korn, You'll Never Find Me

life is degrading in silence they're making me spun out inside my own head spewing and craving
this darkness is baiting me down the road to my own death

I can't take this
I might break it
watch it all fall down

so come give me
the truth you hide
feed the pain
inside

humiliating
I fall to its craving
it feeds on the doubt in my heart sinking and fading our feelings I'm saving to fix hat I tore all apart

I can't take this
I might break it

so come give me
the truth you hide
feed the pain

I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me
I'm lost
you'll never find me

so come give me
the truth you hide
feed the pain

I'm lost
I'm lost
I'm lost
you'll never find me

come for me
