

Kreator, 666 World Divided all my life i've believed in nothing but myself through my eyes I have seen heaven I've seen hell all my life I have been the one stigmatized know that i

I will not believe hly lies diversity integrity nailed to the crucifix loyalty unity in our hearts it still exists

the world is in flames
the people divided
bring back the fire inside
but we are united under 666 burning in the sky

all my life the weak bestow blood upon your sword through these eyes I have seen the slaughter of the lost all my life I fight and resist deviate
realized your dying truth is fake

we are united united in a world decided

but we are united
