Kreator, Outcast

All alone
So unreal
Follow illusions
Beyond imagination
All alone
Cannot breathe
Feelings isolated
All your heaven breeds frustration

Outcast

All alone
Is it real?
Killing illusions
Beyond imagination
All alone
Cannot feel
Absolute rejection
In a world with no reflection

Now you've crossed the line See with different eyes With a different mind, looking Straight through your disguise

Do you ever know what it really means Being pushed away Driven to the last extreme All you'll ever be, all you ever were Nothing but a freak, just a sociopath
