

Kristin Hoffmann, Real

Everybody's scared to say something real
Everybody's scared to do what they feel
Everybody's scared to move from the heart
Everybody's scared
I bet you are

But tonight I'm screaming out
Tonight I'm pouring out
And I'm sending it all to you
Tonight I'm releasing
Not gonna be deceiving
And that's the most real thing I could do

Everybody's scared to say what they mean
Everybody's scared to live their own dream
Everybody's scared, even you
Everybody's scared...I feel it too

But tonight I'm screaming out
Tonight I'm pouring out
And I'm sending it all to you
Tonight I'm releasing
Not gonna be deceiving
And that's the most real thing I could do

Fate's a choice we can't escape
We're faced with fear and so many times we look within
The mysteries of destiny
Dare to be real
Let illusions fade

'Cause tonight I'm screaming out
Tonight I'm pouring out
and I'm sending it all to you
Tonight I'm releasing
Not gonna be deceiving
And that's the most real thing I could do
Real...real...
