Krystal Meyers, Live

Another sinking sun And I am filled with worry With every morning comes Uncharted territory Am I too young and restless To live the way the fearless do?

I think it's time I start to... Live Unafraid of tomorrow Live Knowing You're in control Live This life wasn't made to waste away I wanna live

Take my concerns and cares Give me new revival I may be breathin' air But You're my soul survival I wanna know the freedom That can only come from You

I'm so tired of waiting There's no more time to lose So give me strength to move To live
