

Krystian Embradora, REBEL (Polish proposition for Eurovision 2024)

I'm not your sweetheart,
I'm not your baby,
And I never promised
To be your plaything
But you know better
I'm in your theatre
You wanna see me play my part
Up, up, up, up your likes
Your expectations
Will I commit a contract violation
If I say the line, it's my life
Not yours

I will never stay in line.
I won't beat my heart to your rhythm.
Walking on the edge of life,
I will be myself, a rebel

When you're scrolling through my life
Are you open to surprise?
Do you see my face
Or do you dump your shadow on me?
I don't want to lose my soul
Crawling under your control
I'll be gone before
The image you want for me starts to show

I will go, I will find another place
The home I always had in mind
Free spirit, nobody hunts me down
In the desert, in the deep and in the wild
On the move, I'm building life on the go
You can enter if you learn how to love
Follow me
Stand up tall and sing

I will never stay in line.
I won't beat my heart to your rhythm.
Walking on the edge of life,
I will be myself, a rebel
I will never stay in line.
I won't hold my breath forever
Rising like a ray of light
I will be myself, a rebel

I will be myself, I will be myself, a rebel in my soul
