

Kula Shaker, Die For Love

Don't wanna be wrapped up in a flag
Or spill blood upon the sand
No don't wanna die for some pack of lies
Or a dream that they made in a room
But I would die for love
Yes I would kneel at your door
Yeah I would die for love
Love, love love
Some people will stick you in the eye
And try to burn you up inside
You don't have to pray for the death of your enemies
You'll defeat them with a song
Yeah I would die for love
Yes I would kneel at your door
Yeah I would die for love
If the voices of fear
Could be banished far from here
In my darkness and pain
There's a song of yesterday
But I would die for love
Yes I would kneel at your door
Oh I would die for love
Love
