Kula Shaker, Into The Deep

I can only speak the words as quickly as they're coming now believe me Looking down upon the bed suspended by a silver thread I'm dreaming From the feeling I had to be sure When you know that you've felt this before It's a long road, long journey home Trying to see poetry within the shifting imagery of meaning Well if you're feeling hollow man just throw the stone and shatter Your reflection... with questions Well if you're trying as hard as you can To see where you fit in this plan It's a long road, long lonely road It takes time to find the place you love It takes time to find the place you love Well if you've got to be sure in that feeling yo've got to take time It takes time to find the place you love It's a long road... long journey home
