Kyle Beats, Somethin Else

I heard that you hold real tight grudges
I heard that you don't wanna be in love with
Somethin' else
You ain't hurt nobody, you just hurt yourself
I heard that you hold real tight grudges
I heard that you don't wanna be in love with
Yeah
Somethin' else

Riding with my crew, but it's just only me
Trackin' out my vocals, 'cause I made the beat
7 figures sounds slim now so let's wait and see
And I don't have a plan for an exit
But let me say this
I see an empire, but on my own
Talk is cheap, but you would never know
Gimme advice, and I'll just tell you "no"
Time is up, you never passed Go
Hold up, wait, I'm on my last note

I heard that you hold real tight grudges
I heard that you don't wanna be in love with
Somethin' else
You ain't hurt nobody, you just hurt yourself
I heard that you hold real tight grudges
I heard that you don't wanna be in love with
Yeah
Somethin' else

It makes sense now, 'cause time is moving
I was losing, tryna find a different way to do it
Don't act stupid, actions never match intentions
No idea how far I came, forgot to mention
Uh, okay I get it, no I don't, but let me try to just Understand, this shit wasn't always in the fucking plan [Woo!
Here I am
I'on even get it, fuck you mention, I don't need it
All the shit you sayin' don't mean shit until you

Did it my way, I think I'll stick to plan A
Losing control, you never seen it that way

I heard that you hold real tight grudges
I heard that you don't wanna be in love with
Somethin' else
You ain't hurt nobody, you just hurt yourself
I heard that you hold real tight grudges
I heard that you don't wanna be in love with
Yeah
