

Kylie Minogue, (Can't Start) Giving You Up

Last night I lost my head
And fell right back into your love
I lay intoxicated
While angels circled high above

Deep in a perfect moment
All it once it feels so right
But when I wake I see reality turn back and bite

Ah, hah-ah hah-ah
Ah, hah-ah hah-ah
Ah, hah-ah hah-ah
Ah, hah-ah hah-ah

Your heartbeat's ticking
And your cool starts dripping
And you're tongue tied up on the phone

Your backbone's breaking
And your smooth starts shaking
Like you can't stand being alone

Your calm starts rocking
Little doubts are knocking
Like the whole world's slipping away

Attention's killing
But the ride is thrilling
And you can't help going again

What you want is what you don't know
Turn me on and watch your ego
What you want is what you don't need
Stand up when you're talking to me

I can't start giving you up
I'm lost without you
Can't stop tickin the tock
I can't start giving you up
I'm mad about you
Can't stop slipping it off

A girls got to suffer for fashion
She knows what her body can do-oooh-oooh
She finds a man and she makes it her passion
I'm happy trying all the time with a boy like you

A girls got to suffer for fashion
She knows what her body can do, ooh-oooh
She finds a man and she makes it her passion
I'm happy trying all the time with a boy like you

I can't start giving you up
I'm lost without you
I can't start giving you up
I'm mad about you
