Kylie Minogue, Cowboy Style

Shed my skin since you came in Where do you end and I begin? Awoke my senses yet you stopped time You took me to a deeper high The essence of my hopes and fears Creation of my muddled dreams

Cowboy style with a peaceful smile You are from the temple won't you stay a while

From my voice to have my say You take me close to far away And now I find and now I feel The ordinary is surreal Peace and terror all in one My future life has just begun

Cowboy style with a peaceful smile You are from the temple won't you stay a while

I am frightened I'm aroused I'm enlightened to the now

Cowboy style with a peaceful smile You are from the temple won't you stay a while
