

Kylie Minogue, I Don't Need Anyone

I feel like speed
I feel like liquid
I give in to you
I melt into you
I felt like nothing
Was said and done
I fall into you
I fall into you

I don't need anyone
Except for someone that I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for someone I've not found

Your signature
Is on my hip
A kiss from you
Still on my lips
I am entire
I am finally one
But the moments
Is long gone

I don't need anyone
Except for someone that I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for someone I've not found
