

Lacey Sturm, Intro (My Heartbeat)

Can you hear my heartbeat
Are you scared of what I could be
Every hour quarts of blood rushing through me
Oh the power of the life that's inside of me

You've never seen a DNA like mine
And it bothers you that you can't read my mind
And you're wondering about my soul
Yeah I got a soul that you can't touch inside
Can you hear, can you hear
My heartbeat
Hear my, hear my
My heartbeat
