

Lacuna Coil, End Of Time

You've build your lies
Above the sand
You hold my hand
Before the end comes
Forgiving me for what I've done till the end of days

Cause I belong to you
Cause I am part of you
I am dying in your arms
It's time to go, I can't make it through

I've come to realise
Tonight my dear the end of time
Is not so far away
We cannot pray to save our lives

I can feel you and
I think that everything you wanted make
Was the mirror of your dreams
But I couldn't believe what you take

As I belong to you
My flesh and blood in you
I am burning in ths fire
It's time to go
I can make it through

I've come to realise
Tonight my dear the end of time
Is not so far away
We cannot pray to save our lives

I've come to realise
Tonight my friend the end of time
Is not so far away
We cannot pray to save our lives

I'm comming home again
And now I know where I belong
Reeling from my instincts
Cause I realise I'm not alone

I've come to realize
Tonight my dear the end of time
Is not so far away
We cannot pray to save our lives

I've come to realise
Tonight my friend the end of time
Is not so far away
We cannot pray to save our lives
