

Lacuna Coil, Reckless

tonight it's coming down to hell whit all the innocence the signs are all around I've had enough
wasted too much time
afraid to cross the line
enough whit alibis

you make me reckless

destroy

let's wreck it down
let's be wild and get reckless

now destroy

keep the madness
endless
give me danger along the ride unafraid to self-destroy things won't be slowing down I'm high enough on bitterness the fire fills my eyes

not afraid

I have never learnt to compromise need to feel alive
enough with alibis

feel alive

give me danger come on
enjoy the ride

smash

and break this down
let's be wild and reckless
