Lacuna Coil, The Maze

My thoughs can be so vicious

Committed to a plan

The fear becomes ambitious

Taking me till I am gone

I don't know how it starded

Beating up myself

I've come to realize

I barely carry on each day

This life is so destructive

It's blowing out my mind

My breath is running short

I'm lost here (deep inside, deep inside)

In this maze

I'm running through the halls of emptiness

In this maze

I can't find the way to get back to the end

In this maze

I'm feeling like I'm stuck inside a cage

In this maze

I won't feel the breeze 'till I break this maze and run

I don't know how it starded

Thinking to myself

I've come to realize

I couldn't carry on each day

This vibe is so destructive

I'm smoking up my mind

So by the time she left

I was lost here (deep inside, deep inside)

In this maze

I'm running through the halls of emptiness

In this maze

I can't find the way to get back to the end

In this maze

I'm feeling like I'm stuck inside a cage

In this maze

I won't feel the breeze 'till I break this maze and run

Will I ever see the sun

Shining through the prison clouds?

In the darkness you can hide

Go inside, free your mind

In this maze

I'm running through the halls of emptiness

In this maze

I can't find the way to get back to the end

In this maze

I'm feeling like I'm stuck inside a cage

In this maze

I can't find the way to get back to the end

In this maze

In this maze

I won't feel the breeze 'till I break this maze

Break this maze and run
