

Lady XO, Guala

Came up from the bottom
I'm gettin' straight to the guala
I'm solid weal with a kiss wala
Bust out a pack all my clientelle callin'
I don't drink act but this wood got me coughin'
I keep me a K
Won't miss my target it's up let it spray
I got some work comin' straight from the bay
How you still bangin' but ain't gettin' pape
Okay
I had to pave the way them bitches don't like me they better get used to it
Ain't seen the vision from my side you said I was crazy well call me a lunatic
I dropped this bitch now she bussin' it
If he try to walk up we tuckin' it
It's cold outside rock a letterman
Luck if you test it
Gon' give you the best of it
I'm t'n up celebratin' who doubted me
And I still pray bout the ones who be proud of me
Don't benefit I don't want liabilities
Want part of mine shit they sayin' be killin' me
Just cuz you hate it don't make you an enemy
Bet if the shoe fit I'm just speakin' generally
Try replicate it but I got the recipe
Always a leech I mean that disrespectfully
Say that you love me but I peep the jealousy
Should been on my team but you rather envy me
Playin' with bread you could die that's essentially
Act like he tough but his block really sesame
If you fucked with me then you wouldn't question it
Move off emotions but I speak in benjamins
Mean what I say not offensive it's genuine
This dirty business I like the adrenaline
Watch how you talkin' I ride with a felony
Keep the composure this bitch really testin' me
He coppin' bowls I don't blame him it's medicine
Try to be slick robbers knock at your residence
Pay for filets yes I love me a gentleman
Came here with me so you gon' have to let em in Postin' them straps they gon' use it for evidence
Say they put me on they wish they was relevant
If it's a problem gon' come out my element
Ain't really on that he just an impressionist
I told em it'd pop don't insult my intelligence
Put fear of god in em he speak with impediment
He say I'm boujee but baby I'm elegant
I spoke on my plays I could see he was hesitant
With me or against me you don't get to guesstimate
No bitch know my business I know if they tellin' it
