

Lake, Do I Love You

The waterfall of life
Above the sands of time
I love you like a mountain
Above the countryside
The ocean breeze it blows your hair
so free
The sky is making changes
Reflections to the sea
Whoa oh oh
No no no no no no
No no no

Do I love you much too much
Do I live without you touch
Is it right to feel
The way I feel about you
Do I mean so much to you
Do you feel the same way too
So I ask myself again, over and over
Do I love you, love you, love you
Do I love you, love you, love you

The day is clouding over
Rain is falling free
I love you like a river
That flows out to the sea
The moonlight shines so silver,
Falling on you face
The stars are changing color
For love is in the air
Whoa oh oh
No no no no no no
No no no

Do I love you much too much
Can I live without your touch
Is it right to feel
The way I feel about you
Do I mean so much to you
Do you feel the same way too
So I ask myself again, over and over
Do I love you, love you, love you
Do I love you, love you, love you

Do I love you much too much
Can I live without your touch
Is it right to feel
The way I feel about you
Do I mean so much to you
Do you feel the same way too
So I ask myself again, over and over...
