

Lake Of Tears, Raistlin And The Rose

Shadows

Shadows and fever

No one hears him cry so he turns to evil

Only now, only now does he know

Pains

Always those pains

Once he turns that way he will do it again

Only now, only now does he know

Silver doom, unseen moon will show

As they dance under the moon they bring doom

He calls her friend and says he'll change

She calls him friend and he deceives again

Flowers

A scent of flowers

Always on his mind so he deceives her

Only now, only now does she know

Love

Love makes her blind

Soon she follows him through the doors of time

Only now, only now does she know

Silver doom, unseen moon will show

As they dance under the moon

They bring doom

He calls her friend and says he'll change

She calls him friend and he deceives again

He calls her friend and says he'll change

She calls him friend and he deceives again
