

Lana Del Rey, Bartender

all the ladies of the canyon wearing black to their house parties Crosby, Stills and Nash is playing Wine is flowing with Bacardi but sometimes, girls just want to have fun the poetry inside of me is warm like a gun

I bought me track in the middle of the night it'll buy me a year if I play my cards right
cause that don't yet know that car I drive I am just tryna yet know what car I drive with my bartender, hold me all night bartender, our love's alive baby remember, I am not drinking wine but that cherry coke you serve is fine and our love's sweet enough on the vine bartender /2x

all the ladies of the canyon
wearing white for their tea parties Playing games of levitation meditating in the garden and I love the little games that we play from the valley to the beach and when at last the day si done I grab my keys

I am just tryna yet know what car I drive
baby remember, I am not drinking wine
and our love's sweet enough on the vine
