

Lana Del Rey, California

Look at that, I'm walking around like I just don't care
Why is that? Cause baby I don't now that I'm here
Look at me, I'm staying up late in my blue suede shoes
Shake it up, I'm dancing all night to the dirty blues

I like the light that shines on the water
I love the waves that break on the shore
I love the heat, can't get any hotter
And every night we dance, I love you even more

California, land that I love I'm not turning back
California, now that I'm home I'm not going back
California, I'm coming for ya
California, I'm coming for ya

Look at that, I'm walking around like I just don't care
Wildin' out, shaking it off shaking out my hair
I'm leanin' back, leaning so far I'm lyin' in the air
You're the man, and God it feels good just to say that, yeah

Like a dream, you glide on the water
And like a star I shine from the shore
Like the sun can't get any hotter
You're the one I want, I won't look anymore

California, land that I love I'm not turning back
California, now that I'm home I'm not going back
California, I'm coming for ya
California, I'm coming for ya

He's my happy ending
When the stars aligned
Angels in the moonlight
Only you and i

California, land that I love I'm not turning back
California, now that I'm home I'm not going back
California, I'm coming for ya
California, I'm coming for ya
Boy you look so fine, fine
Boy you look so fine, fine
Boy you look so fine, fine
