Lana Del Rey, Jump

Palm trees in black and white Last thing I saw before I died Palm trees in black and white Was the last thing I saw before I died Right line, right man Right mixture of cocaine an heroin

Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you, do you wanna?

Heaven in the rain
Cadillac convertible with him
Hot shot at two A.M.
You got that grin of a very hollow man

Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you, do you wanna?

Palm trees in black and white You hot junkie on your window smiling wide Palm trees in black and white Lean forward and you close your eyes Last fight, fuck them Last words before you went and left again

Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you wanna jump, jump, jump? Do you, do you, do you wanna?

Just do what you love, just do what you can Just do what you love, just do what you can Just do what you love, do it better than Just do what you love, do it better than

Do you wanna? Do you wanna? Jump
