

Lana Del Rey, Wild At Heart

What would you do if i told you
You make me crazy
To see your pretty pics on Sunset Boulevard?
And it makes me lazy
So i smoke cigarettes
Just to understand the smog

I love you lots like polka-dots
You're killing me more
Than coffee pots and insta dots
Whit every drop i pour
And if i had to do it all again
I would becouse, baby
In the end
It brought me here to you
