

LANY, you!

like a water in the desert Impossible to find
You found me when i was broken
Put me back together Gave me life

Like a flower in the concreto
So beautiful and rare
You gave me hope
When i was empty Walked me thru the fire you were there

You're the sun to the moon
You're my ocean painted blue
You i am nothing without you

Like and angel in a nightmare
You opened iup my eyes Looking in all the wrong places You'r'e the one i needed this whole time

You're the sun to the moon
You're my ocean painted blue

i am nothing without you
i am nothing without you
i am nothing without you you're the air in my lungs you're the veins to my blood
you, i am nothing without you

You're the sun to the moon
You're my ocean painted blue

i am nothing without you
i am nothing without you
