

Lara Fabian, To Love Again (Si Tu M'aimes)

Every night
Every day
I tell my heart
To forget you and to Move away
Not to break
Anymore
But oh, no matter
What I say
You're so deep in my mind
There's no way to leave this love behind

It used to be
I believed
I could go on
And find someone to Rest upon
Anyone, anyone
Soon I found
There was no other

There you are
Framed against the sky
You are my life
And I pray for when
You will be mine
To love again

I see the rain
In the sky
And I see your face
Through every tear that I cry
With every breath
And every sound
I can hear
Another voice and swear that You're around
And
every word is clear
'Cause I know
The memory won't let go
Until you're mine
To love again

Who's to say what lives in the past
Who's to say that love won't last Time's been standing still Waiting so patiently until Until that one day when
When I will have you
To love again

And there you are
Framed against the sky
You are my life
And I pray for when
You will be mine
To love again
