

Late Again, The City of Lost, Broke and Forgotten

We all going down this time
Right now!

Take a picture, what you have inside?
I don't know but scars show me all the time
All alone I come and go,
But I think they never know

She's just told me, she will die,
Medicine will take her life
She's got a pill,
I've got a thrill,
Am I dreaming is it real?

And maybe someday she'll get blessed,
Hoping get forgiveness
I'm feeling down with this,
I'm feeling down with this!

My loneliness, come give me kiss
Every time I pray alone,
I see your shadow by the door
Condemned to die,
No tears, no cry!
All the fears I'll keep inside,
See you soon, another life

In newspaper, I just read a line
Another young girl committed suicide
All alone she came and go,
But one thing they never know

She was sick of everyone,
But forgot she had a son
I can't forgive,
I can't believe,
I'm holding body that don't breathe

To many things I try forgot,
But I can't no matter what
It's still inside me every day
And I don't feel so fuckin' sane
Memories, they never die,
Pictures running through my mind
My biggest wish, my biggest wish
Can I get along with this?
