

Laufey, Bewitched

Wrapped me in your arms
Leaned in and whispered
"Keep me in your heart"
I'm so bewildered
What's this new desire called?
I didn't know that much at all
'Bout love before
But now I think I'm learning

You bewitched me
From the first time
That you kissed me
Waited all night
Then we ran down the street
In the late London light
The world froze around us
You kissed me goodnight

You bewitch me
Every damn second
You're with me
I try to think straight
But I'm failing so badly
I'm coming apart
You wrote me a note
Cast a spell on my heart

And bewitched me
Bewitched me

You're not even gone
I already miss you
What's going on?
I've never been through
This all consuming fire fuming
Cursing at the moon and losing
All control and crying
Cuz I think I'm falling
Chase darling

You bewitched me
From the first time
That you kissed me
Waited all night
Then we ran down the street
In the late London light
The world froze around us
You kissed me goodnight

You bewitch me
Every damn second
You're with me
I try to think straight
But I'm failing so badly
I'm coming apart
You wrote me a note
Cast a spell on my heart

And bewitched me
You bewitched me
