

Laura van Kaam, Be Like You

You always have a shoulder
When somebody cries
Always there to lean on
And to dry their eyes
Always tough and steady
When the wind is strong
In the storm it's always
You they're counting on
But you
You're never gonna let it go
So the day your world comes crashing down
I want you to know

If you fall
I will be there in a second
If you fall
You can hold on to this lifeline
I'll be strong
If your life is getting lonely
And you need someone to hold on to
I will try to be like you

I have never seen you standing first in line
Bet a selfish thought has never crossed your mind
You don't even know how to pronounce a no
Standing in the shadow
Making others glow
But you, you're the rock were'r clinging to
So the day you're world comes crashing down
You'll know what I do

If you fall
I will be there in a second
If you fall
You can hold on to this lifeline
I'll be strong
If your life is getting lonely
And you need someone to hold on to
I will try to be like you

If you need someone to hold on to
If you fall
I will be there in a second
If you fall
You can hold on to this lifeline
I'll be strong
If your life is getting lonely
And you need someone to hold on to
I will try to be like you
