

Lauren Jauregui, More Than That i see you watching so i walked into your stare I got a situation I can tell you wanna know and you can take an honest girl and turn into a _____ if i'mma take a gamble then you better come for it I am worth more than the diamonds that you got around your neck shift if nobody can flex my baby does it best if you wanna do better than we might just make a deal I know I am not right for teasing you but I just wanna see what you would do If I give you a taste of what I do just remember that I don't belong to you you gon'have to come stronger than this liquor wanna take me home?

better be more convincing
I will take more than to get to me more than to get to me
boy you better come stronger than this liquor
wanna take me home?
stronger than this liquor if my man know there's gon' be some issues but take my number down and that's my issue nah, I am just playing, I am so deep In love but the way you talking about yourself got me acting up the way you looking at me baby, I know what's up I can feel how you feel but without even a touch and that's not gonna make me give it up and your time is up

I know I am not right for teasing you

wanna take me home?
boy you better come stronger than this liquor
wanna take me home?
