Lauren Jauregui, On Guard (ft. 6lack)

On Guard Feline with the instinct Cosmic intuition I know the truth before it's given, I can read it in your feelings Take some patience and persistence Time and a precision My trust is not easily given You gotta wait on my permission To open me up Take a look under my heart, Run your hands over my scars May be too much So I gotta see who you are Before you inspire art So calm down There's no need to rush now Won't let it go too far
