

Lauv, Changes

i am getting rid of all my clothes i don't wear I think I ma gonna cut my hair cause these days I don't feel like me I think I am gonna take a break from school probably won't last that long but lord knows I could use some sleep changes they might drive you half insane but it's killing you to stay the same but it's all going to work out it's all going to work ous someday moments living whit your eyes half open you've been thinking about these changes it's all gonna work out /2x someday
