

Lauv, El Tejano (feat. Sofía Reyes)

I met a girl at el Tejano
We danced to Spanish covers of Nirvana
We danced and got another margarita
She's from Reseda
I said: I'm from where ever you're going tonight
Drinking after dark, that's when she stole my heart
She knew my friends
That's where the story begins
Standing at the salsa bar
Asked me if it was mild
I was speechless but still I smiled
Took me by the hand and asked if I had plans
I said, getting drunk and pretending that I can dance
She laughed, I feel in love and now it's no going back
Once you know it
You know it
That's that!

I met a girl at el Tejano
We danced to Spanish covers of Nirvana
We danced and got another margarita
She's from Reseda
I said: I'm from where ever you're going tonight

It's happy hour up in NOHO
WE DANCED
SHE SAID I NEVER COME HERE SOLO
WE DANCED
SHE bought a round of straight tequila
She's from Reseda
I said I'm from where ever you're going tonight
She asked if I like Friends
I guess that that was the test
I said, hell yeah and Phoebe's the fucking best
We were standing at the salsa bar
Feeling the vibration
I always found myself in random situations

Do you want to have a little bit of fun tonight?
She said, I do
Do you want to have a little bit of fun
Once you know it
You know it
That's that
