

Leaves' Eyes, Into Your Light

I've heard your song and
I've seen the light in your eyes,
And it took me so long to see
Straight through the night
And through you, ah...

You're the depths of my own mind
And you're the heights of my creation,
Wait for me, wait for me,
Alone but strong when you're in my sight
Your love hit me like a stroke,
Take me with you, take me with you.

Take me to that place, ah,
Where I feel so safe, aaah.
Into your light I dive.
Into your light...

Take me to that place, ah,
Where I feel so safe, aaah.
Into your light I dive.

I've taken this step and
We're intimate now, and I am,
I am joining your world,
A formation of love, and you shine
Through me.

You're the depths of my own mind
And you're the heights of my creation,
Wait for me, wait for me,
Alone but strong when you're in my sight
Your love hit me like a stroke,
Take me with you, take me with you.

Take me to that place, ah,
Where I feel so safe, aaah.
Into your light I dive.
Into your light...

Take me to that place, ah,
Where I feel so safe, aaah.
Into your light I dive.

Into your light,
Enter my mind.
Into your light,
Enter my mind.

Mermaid, medium of light
For the morning that comes,
For the orchid that grows.
Love me against all laws,
You defeated the doubt
That was stuck inside me.

Take me to that place, ah,
Where I feel so safe, aaah.
Into your light I dive.
Into your light...

Take me to that place, ah,
Where I feel so safe, aaah.
Into your light I dive.

Into your light I dive,
Into your light I dive.
