

Leaves' Eyes, Legend Land

We headed west,
To legend land,
Up river to
Set feet on soil.
Smell morning dew
On stubborn grass,
Found grapes and vines
And sweet temptation.

Keeps me alive (keeps me alive),
In my legend land I still feel how close
We are and will be.
Legend land, a piece you left,
A piece of promise and hope.

For you and me,
Eternity
Appears to me,
From Asgard sent.

Shining through
Any time barrier,
Like wild flowers will
To stay alive,
To divide the stone,
To break through.

Legend land, I still feel how close
We are and will be, ah.
Legend land, a piece you left,
A piece of promise and hope.

In my dreams a Legend land,
A piece of promise and hope,
In my heart, keeps me alive...

Legend land, I still feel how close
We are and will be.
Legend land, a piece you left,
A piece of promise and hope.
(My legend land)

Legend land (legend land),
We are and will be...
Legend land (legend land), a piece you left,
A piece of promise and hope.
