

Lemonator, Headlights

I can only ask you why
We let it go like butterfly
All the lessons in the life
Were supposed to lead us high

Painted pictures why they fade
You and I, we seemed the same
Sharing secrets and our days
Then one morning it all changed

Your eyes, headlights
Flash me, I'm blind
I loved you so much
Headlights, your eyes
No more, we're done
I'm on my way down

There's a part of me you know
There's a part of me I've never shown
'Cause the heart in me says no
It's the heart that loves you so

Headlights, your eyes
Flash me and I'm blind
I loved you so much
Your eyes, headlights
No more we're done
I'm on my way down
