

Lemonator, You Stole My Heart

Shame, shame on me
I woke up with you in my dreams
I waited for you, I waited for you It's about the last few days, it's about this one mistake
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
why does it have to always end like this?
Shame, shame on me I wish you were here I guess I wanted this I guess I needed this and what I can't forget is what I can't regret
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
why does it have to always end like this?
and with these open arms I let you steal my heart
why does it have to always end like this?
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
why does it have to always end like this?
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
why does it have to always end like this?
